PETITIONS AND MEMORIALS.

When the above were declared in order, Senator Crowley arose and stated that a corporation politician of Galveston had not only seen fit to attack him in the recent campaign, but had followed up his attack by offering to be presented to the State Senate a memorial concerning same; and since none of the other Senators were inclined to lend their aid by presenting it, he, Crowley, would; and accordingly sent it to the Secretary's desk and asked that it be read.

Pending the reading of the same, Senator Tips stated that he would like to indulge the Senator (Crowley), but since the hour fixed by resolution adopted this morning for the Senate and House to meet in joint session to count the vote and arrange for the inauguration of the Governor and Lieutenant Governor was so near at hand as to preclude the reading in full thereof, he therefore moved that the memorial be referred to the Committee on Privileges and Elections.

Referred.

Senator Crowley then arose to a question of personal privilege, and made a statement as to the nature and spirit of said memorial.

By Senator Gage:
